About ACETECH

ACETECH, Asia's premier trade show for architecture, building materials, art, and design, is the third-most prestigious in the world. The forum's singular nature allows exhibitors to display their products and network and leave a lasting impression on key faculty decision-makers.

Over the past 17 years, ACETECH has evolved as an iconic architectural platform, catering to the needs of a young and developing India. We witness the finest national and international brands and illustrious industry stalwarts from India and worldwide each year.

ACETECH hosts a wide range of industry-specific allied events and concurrent knowledge forums that bring value to its customers and provide necessary engagement platforms for professionals from the architecture, construction, and design verticals.

BATH & CERAMICS EXPO 2024

Introducing Bath & Ceramics Expo 2024, a pioneering venture by ACETECH, for the very first time in the heart of Bangalore.

With over 17 years of unwavering commitment and experience in the Architecture, Building Materials, and Design sector, the Bath & Ceramics Expo 2024 is an exclusive trade show tailored to the Sanitary, Ceramics, and Surfaces industries, bringing together a handpicked selection of National and International brands all under one roof.

This platform, designed for interior designers, architects, dealers, developers, and industry specifiers, explores and sources products that define the essence of world-class interiors. Step into the world of innovation and design at the Bath & Ceramics Expo 2024.
