I would like to thank ACETECH for inviting me here and all the industry heads who are present here to discuss and deliberate over ideas that would change the city and the industry for better. The industry and the government has a common agenda and we would work together to change the city.

I am really surprised with the amount of new materials that are now available in Indian market and are showcased at THE GRAND ACE SURFACES. This platform indeed is a great opportunity for each & every one.

"THE GRAND ACE SURFACES helps build better lifestyle and the name says it all. It's an ACE in technology.

THE GRAND ACE SURFACES has its foundation in architecture and engineering. It is the foundation stone for India's growth."

I am definitely at THE GRAND ACE SURFACES. After years of lockdown and with no gathering to sort of bring everyone together, it's wonderful to be around such great energy and people. I believe that you should attend the event to catch up because there will be many new products that you will likely get to see. Check it out and enjoy a pleasant design weekend at THE GRAND ACE SURFACES because it's a novel idea.

My visit to THE GRAND ACE SURFACES was truly impressive. The breadth of design talent on display was remarkable, and the event itself was energetic and engaging. Thank you for hosting such a successful event

I've been attending THE GRAND ACE SURFACES for years, and it just keeps getting better! The variety of products and exhibitors seems to grow every year, making it a must-see event for anyone in the industry.

The association with THE GRAND ACE SURFACES is always wonderful. THE GRAND ACE SURFACES is a great platform and I have said this as THE GRAND ACE SURFACES is one place where you can see everything that you need in your house. It's so vibrant and great kind of exposure, it's a fantastic association. THE GRAND ACE SURFACES has reached to International standards.

I'm Firas, visiting India for the first time, was incredibly impressed by the extensive collection of materials on display at the show. I particularly enjoyed seeing so many new products and groups. "We've never been before, "but we're so glad we came. There's so much to see!" I express my gratitude for the invitation and hopes to attend again next year.

Hi, I'm Anchal. I'm from Kuwait and I came here specifically looking for tiles, and I'm impressed with what I've seen so far. The variety is fantastic, and I'm hopeful I'll find the perfect options for my project. Thank you for having me!

ACETECH has become a premier event, raising the bar and competing with international fairs. It has a distinct character now, with an edge that sets it apart. Based on previous experiences, I have high expectations. One thing is certain: ACETECH is relentless in self-improvement.

ASSOCIATION

The GRAND ACE SURFACES was a fantastic B2B exhibition that we recently attended. We were truly amazed to see an exceptional showcase of cutting-edge and innovative surface solutions all under one roof.

THE GRAND ACE SURFACE is one of the most meticulously curated exhibitions, offering an unparalleled platform that comprehensively covers the Pan-India distributor and dealer market. It provided an incredible opportunity to explore the latest industry trends, cutting-edge innovations, and valuable networking with key players in the industry.
